DAY 04 SINGAPORE

Singapore, an island city-state is located at the crossroads of the Asia Pacific. It is a welcome blend of sophistication and multi-racial traditions as old as the cultures themselves. Confined within a land mass of just 639 square kilometers and lying just over one degree North of the equator, Singapore is a dynamic, modern metropolis where skyscrapers tower high above the world's second busiest port. A closer look reveals a city that has retained many elements of its fascinating past. Gold-domed mosques where the muezzin still calls the faithful to prayer.

Incense-filled temples built by migrants in thanks for safe passage across the Southern Sea. Quiet back lanes and bustling bazaars overflowing with all the treasures of the Orient. Gracious old colonial architecture and peaceful green parks.

Singapore's strategic location and fine harbor made it ideal for a trading port during the 1890's. The city attracted enterprising merchants and hard working immigrants from many places. Malays, Javanese, Bugis, Chinese migrants, Arab traders, Indians, Armenians, Ceylonese and British account for the cultural assimilation visible to the visitor. The current population comprises 78% Chinese, 14% Malay, 7% Indian and 1% others.

DAY 06 JAKARTA/SEMARANG/PANGKALAN BUN

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

At approximately 6:30 AM be ready in the lobby of the Sheraton Bandara Hotel in preparation for your transfer to the airport.

7:55 AM Depart Jakarta via Garuda Indonesia flight # 232 direct service to Semarang. Total flying time: 1 hour, 10 minutes.

9:05 AM Arrive Semarang. You will have a 2 hour, 40 minute layover and change of planes. The flight from Semarang to Pangkalan Bun has severe weight restrictions – 20 pounds per person.

11:50 AM Depart Semarang via Kalstar Air flight # 603 service to Pangkalan Bun. Total flying time: 1 hour. Flight time only an approximation. Exact flight details available 30 days prior to travel.

12:50 PM Arrive Pangkalan Bun. Your guide will be waiting outside the baggage claim area holding a sign marked 'Your Name'. You will be assisted with luggage and escorted to a waiting vehicle (note the transportation in this part of Indonesia - is extremely basic) for your transfer to Kumai. The drive takes approximately 25 minutes.

In Kumai will have an opportunity to shop at a local stall and pick up some bottled water and snacks for your Camp Leakey adventure.

Afterwards board a "klotok" (local wooden boat) for your journey along the Kumai and Sekonyer Rivers. Be on the lookout for proboscis monkeys, gibbons, macaques, herons, storks, hornbills, pigeons, kingfishers, flycatchers, bulbuls, and pitta.

Late this afternoon check in to the Rimba Lodge where reservations for an Emerald room (air conditioning and hot water, Triple Occupancy) have been confirmed for the following 3 nights.

The Rimba Lodge is perched on the edge of the Sekonyer River and surrounded by forest. Access is only by boat from the Port of Kumai. The Lodge is built in a series of adjoining elevated pavilions with walkways connecting the restaurant, reception/lounge, and office. A resident troop of Macaques Monkeys are often seen around the lodge and Proboscis Monkeys are also often visible across the river.

Just before sunset set out on the river to view the Proboscis Monkeys settling in the trees for the night. You will see primates of several varieties: Macaques, Silvered Leaf Monkeys and Proboscis Monkeys. Proboscis Monkeys belong to the group known as colobines. They have unusually large stomachs, a result of digesting the leaves they eat in specialized chambers where bacteria ferment the animals' food. The male Proboscis Monkey has a huge pendulous nose, which adds to his unusual appearance. Harems are usually comprised of a dominant male, several females and their offspring. There are also bachelor groups, and confrontation with a harem results in great commotion as members of the bachelor group attempt to mingle with the harem females.

Please note: Your Camp Leakey portion of your itinerary is flexible to afford maximum opportunities for viewing wildlife and taking advantage of any special sightings, occurrences or conditions. You will start early each day to be on the river at prime wildlife viewing times.

DAY 07-08 CAMP LEAKEY

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Enjoy two full days exploring the region.

Visit Tanjung Harapan. Located in the Tanjung Puting National Park Reserve, Tanjung Harapan was established in 1936. Tanjung Puting is one of the largest lowland reserves in Kalimantan. Tanjung Harapan is also home to the Proboscis Monkey Research Station. Here you will find both Proboscis Monkeys (a primate found only on the island of Borneo) and baby/infant orphaned Orangutans which are being re-introduced into the wild by the Camp Leakey Station Project. You will have a wonderful opportunity to meet these endearing apes.

Journey upriver to the Camp Leakey Orangutan station. The Camp Leakey Station is in a remote and primitive setting in the central swamp-rainforest. Here for the past 30 plus years, American Dr. Birute Galdikas and her staff have labored to create a home for formerly illegal captive orangutans from around the world who are sent to Camp Leakey for re-introduction into the jungle environment. Dr. Galdikas is conducting long-term research into the orangutan's social behavior, mother-infant relations, and feeding ecology at Camp Leakey.

At Camp Leaky attend the afternoon feeding. This is when the rehabilitated orangutans come in for a once-a-day support feeding to assure they are getting enough nutrition while being left to fend for themselves in the wild. This is a wonderful opportunity to observe the gentle giants at very close range, get some excellent photographs, and talk to some of the support staff that operates the research station. A visit to Camp Leaky is an opportunity not to be missed! Sections are a bit swampy though, so the usual cautions about mud and leeches apply. Here you will have opportunities to hike through a primeval rain forest in search of wild orangutans.

Late in the afternoon you will see the Proboscis Monkeys returning to the trees located along the riverbanks where they will spend the night.

Meals included: Breakfast

At approximately 9:00 AM be ready in the lobby of the hotel in preparation for a full day of exploring.

Begin with a visit to the Sultan's Palace, commonly referred to as the Kraton. The Kraton is the ancestral Palace of Java's supreme ruler and is considered the finest in existence in Indonesia. Sonobudoyo Museum is dedicated to Keris. Keris are asymmetrical daggers or swords famous for its distinctive wavy blade, although there are straight blades as well. Keris are made from metal, rare types of wood, gold or ivory. Considered both a weapon and spiritual object, Keris are often considered to have an essence or presence—some even considered to have magical powers.

Also visit a Batik & Silverwork factory.

Pause for lunch at a local restaurant. Cost of lunch payable directly to the restaurant.

After lunch travel outside the city to the magnificent Borobudur Temple. Built in the 8th century this shrine is the largest artistic expression of the principles of the Buddhist religion combining art and architecture to produce a true "Wonder of the World."

Erected 200 years before Notre Dame and Chartres cathedrals, it also predates the Buddhist temple of Angkor Wat in Cambodia by three centuries. Built with more than two million cubic feet of stone, it's the world's largest stupa and largest ancient monument in the Southern Hemisphere.

DAY 11 YOGYAKARTA/DENPASAR (Bali)

Meals included: Breakfast

At approximately 10:00 AM be ready in the lobby of the Phoenix Hotel in preparation for a visit to Prambanan Temple and your transfer to the Yogyakarta airport.

Visit Prambanan Temple, a Unesco World Heritage Site. Prambanan Temple is a collection of massive Hindu temples built by the Mataram Kingdom. Prambanan derives its name from the village where it is located. The temple sits amongst rice fields and the holy shrine rise 43 meters. The Prambanan Complex, built in the 9th and 10th Centuries, once contained more than 200 temples. The temple was built in three parts representing the stages of the Hindu Cosmos. The base was the underworld for commoners, the body was the middle world for those who'd renounced the worldly life, and the summit represented the upper world inhabited by the gods.

The temple complex has eight shrines, of which three are dedicated to the Hindu trinity of Shiva, Vishnu and Brahma. The main temple also has carvings of the well-known Ramayana epic. In the 10th century the temple was largely abandoned after the Mataram dynasty moved its court base to East Java. Most of the main temples collapsed during a major earthquake in the 16th century and the huge complex lie largely forgotten in the jungle. In 1811 a surveyor working for Thomas Stamford Raffles came upon the ruins of Prambanan by pure chance. It is somewhat ironic that the very brief British rule of Java led to the re-discovery of both Borobudur and Prambanan. Restoration of the temple complex began only in 1930 and continues today.

4:15 PM Depart Yogyakarta via Garuda Indonesia flight # 252 direct service to Denpasar, Bali. Total flying time: 1 hour, 20 minutes. Set your watch 1 hour ahead.

6:35 PM Arrive Denpasar (Bali). After collecting luggage you will be met by your guide outside the baggage claim area and escorted to a waiting vehicle for your transfer to the Bali Oberoi.

At the Bali Oberoi reservations for (2) Luxury Garden View Lanais have been confirmed for the following 2 nights. The Oberoi is set in 15 acres of tropical gardens on Seminyak Beach. Built in traditional Balinese style, you can relax in truly fabulous settings that celebrate your privacy with charming thatched roof villas, unique garden bathrooms and exquisite interiors featuring Balinese art. Within easy walking distance are a handful of excellent restaurants.

Bali has enchanted visitors for centuries with its unique charm. Nowhere will you find a people more devoted to the celebration of harmony and beauty. DAY 13 BALI – Transfer to the Elephant Park

Meals included: Breakfast, Dinner 🍴

8:00 AM be ready in the lobby of the Bali Oberoi in preparation for your transfer to the Elephant Park.

Enroute visit Batubulan Village where you will see the spectacular Barong Dance. Also called the "Kris Dance", the Barong Dance is a pantomime of a fantastic dragon-like holy animal, the Barong, pitched in battle against the witch, Rangda. This is the most violent of Balinese dances and is often used as an exorcism. Rangda is Queen of the witches, a ruthless child-eater and black magician who brings sickness and death. Some scholars say her origin is Shiva's wife Durga in her evil aspect. Barong, a hairy, eerie, mythical lion, sides with human beings against Rangda to thwart her evil plans. The Barong is manipulated by two men who take the immense puppet through comic, yet complex, dance movements. The puppet has a beard of human hair, feathers, and bells all over its body.

Afterwards visit the Pasar Seni Sukawati (Sukawati Art Market) where you will have 2 or so hours to explore the market. Sukawati market offers a variety of items, from the array of beautiful paintings and ornaments, clothing as well as an assortment of fresh produce and snacking opportunities.

DAY 14 Bali - Transfer to Ubud

Meals included: Breakfast

From 7:00 – 8:00 AM enjoy breakfast in the lodge.

From 8:00 - 9:30AM you will be able to wash the elephants.

Afterwards check out and drive to Keliki Village where you will visit an elementary school and explore the village.

Drive to Batuan and visit a traditional Balinese Compound at Singapadu Village. Here you will have an opportunity to visit with a typical Balinese family.

At approximately 2:00 PM arrive at Hanging Gardens Ubud where reservations for a Family Pool Villa (Triple Occupancy) have been confirmed for the following 3 nights. The Hanging Gardens Ubud is a haven of peace set among the emerald rice terraces and jungle covered mountains at the heart of Bali. The grand gardens exude the essence of the tropics with cocoa and coffee trees intermingling with bamboos, ornamental flame trees and orchids to create a spectacular haven. The hotel offers guests a complimentary shuttle service from the hotel to Ubud's town center.

Ubud, located amongst rice paddies and steep ravines in the central foothills of southern Bali, has for more than a century been the island's preeminent center for fine arts, dance and music. From Ubud and the surrounding villages have come the most famous dancers, the best known painters and the most talented carvers in Bali. An 8th century legend tells of a Javanese priest, Rsi Markendya, who meditated at the confluence of two rivers at the Ubud locality of Campuan. It is here that he founded the Gunung Lebah temple on the valley floor which remains the site of a pilgrim destination even today.

At 6:00 PM be ready in the lobby of the Hanging Gardens Ubud in preparation for your transfer to Belerung Stage Peliatan. From 7:30 – 8:30 PM enjoy a Legong Dance Performance.

A consummate Balinese dance that epitomizes grace and beauty, the Legong Dance emerged from age-old temple dances meant to appease the gods. A delicate dance typified by highly stylized, deliberate movements, many of the dancers begin at an early age and retire by the time they are 18.

After the dance performance transfer back to the hotel, arriving around 9:00 PM.

At 6:00 PM depart the hotel and travel to a nearby village where you will see a Kecak Dance Performance. This dramatic pre-Hindu Dance is said to derive from the choral element of the trance dance, Sangyang Dedari. Also called the "Monkey Dance" because of the savage ape sounds the performers make; 100 or more seated men all shake, clap, and shout as one being. No gamelan accompanies the Kecak Dance, just the massed voices chattering in perfect unison. The plot is taken from the Ramayana epic.

DAY 16 BALI (Ubud)

Meals included: Breakfast

At 9:00 AM be ready in the lobby of the Hanging Gardens Ubud in preparation for a full day of exploring Bali's eastern region. Stop at the villages of Gianyar and Klungkung where you can visit the Kertagosa, the ancient courthouse. Note the traditional kamasan wayang paintings on the ceiling. Each painting has a story, often depicting the scenes of punishments and rewards in the afterlife.

Afterwards visit the most beautiful and famous temple in Bali... Besakih, The Mother Temple of Bali.

Pura Besakih, is a 1000 year old temple structure which complements the beauty of Bali and its thriving Hindu culture. Dated from the 14th century, the temple was built on a site where animist rites, ceremonies and feasts once took place. Set low on the slopes of Mt. Agung, long stone steps lead up through seven rising terraces to three main temples at its top, each offering homage to the principal Hindu gods of Shiva, Brahma and Vishnu.

Pause for lunch at a local restaurant. Cost of lunch is payable directly to the restaurant.

After lunch visit Goa Lawah and Tenganan, the village of the Aga tribe who have their own culture and live in a totally different style of architecture, a walled-in isolationist town (which is totally different from any other community in Bali). Seldom do the young people marry outside the village, which has resulted in zero population growth. Tenganan is the only place in all of Indonesia where double-ikat cloths are woven. The cloths are used for ceremonial purposes: weddings, teeth-filings, covering the dead, or for a child's first haircut. Only about 30 people still weave gringsings on small makeshift breastlooms.
