What to Pack

Dress is casual and very modest in style and the climate is hot and humid most time of year. Bring lightweight clothing in natural fibers like linen, silk, and cotton, to be the most comfortable. Avoid sleeveless tops and shorts in public areas.

Scarf, sarong or pashmina to cover your head, arms and legs when visiting religious sites or you may wear long sleeves and loose pants or long skirts.

Hiking/trekking shoes and/or a good pair of walking shoes for the city.

Mosquito repellent, sunscreen, sun hat, sunglasses, hand sanitizer/handi-wipes, binoculars and a flashlight with extra batteries are all necessities.

Umbrella and rain jacket is essential during the rainy season from May-October, but even during the other months it's wise to have one with you for those occasional showers.

Public restrooms in Laos typically do not have toilet tissue so you may want to carry a small amount of tissue with you.

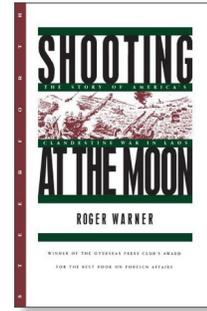

Water purifier or a Safe Water Drinking Bottle since water is not safe to drink in Laos.

Electronic chargers for your camera, phone, computer, etc. and extra camera memory card(s).

Electrical converter and outlet adapter. Their electrical voltage is 220 volts AC, 50HZ and they use a two round prong outlet.

Due to restricted weight limits on all the domestic flights (20kg or 44 pounds) it is recommended that you travel as light as possible.
